WEST CHESTER, PA –The Chester County COVID-19 Business Task Force continues its series of free webinars on Thursday August 13th, 2020 at 3:30 p.m. This week’s webinar addresses how current events and societal shifts change the municipal insurance marketplace. More specifically, the webinar addresses how coverages will change and how claims are now handled. To join the webinar, go to <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88534656238?pwd=eDFSNUFYZDBnNUpZNGJlOHkwUlllOZz09>.

The key speaker is Robert Hall, Senior Vice President and Senior Risk manager for Francis Hall Insurance Services. Francis Hall manages risk for municipalities in the Delaware Valley, providing custom-fit risk management solutions for public entities since 1946.

Mr. Hall will cover business interruption, third party liability, crime and fidelity, law enforcement liability, and cyber liability.

“A global pandemic, political and civil unrest, changes in work and life behaviors...If there is one thing today that’s certain, it’s uncertainty,” said Mr. Hall.

Participants will have the chance to ask questions after the speakers’ presentation.

The webinar is free and will be hosted by Chester County Commissioners Marian Moskowitz, Josh Maxwell and Michelle Kichline. It is backed by the County’s nine chambers of commerce, and other economic, education and government leaders—all members of the COVID-19 Business Task Force and its Restore Chester County initiative.

Slides and resources from previous webinars can be found at www.restorechestercounty.org. Through the site, businesses, organizations, and residents can confidently navigate through these materials and other reopening guidelines with both overall and industry-specific guidance relating to COVID-19.
